ABOUT THE ARTIST

The art pictured on the cover is produced by Favianna Rodriguez, a celebrated interdisciplinary artist based in Oakland, California. Rodriguez is renowned for artwork that deals with issues such as war, migration, globalization, and social movements. Her pieces reflect grassroots struggles and tell a history of social justice through images. Favianna produced the image that was selected for the cover of this book for the organization Public Services International for the celebration of International Women's Day, March 8, 2012. The piece titled "Solidarity is Uplifting" depicts women workers throughout the world "who are always at the very heart of our struggle for human and labour rights and equality" (<http://www.world-psi.org/>). Favianna invites those serving social justice, radical, and revolutionary causes to use her images for noncommercial purposes. Rodriguez has lectured widely on the use of art in civic engagement and is on social media promoting art and activism. Contact her, follow her on social media, schedule her for a talk, or purchase her work at www.favianna.com.
