

Recueil des Cours, Collected Courses, Volume 261 (1996)
Académie de Droit International de la Haye /
Hague Academy of International Law

The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of public and private international law and related subjects. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, including legislation and case law.

All courses at the Academy are, in principle, published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law.

This volume contains: - International Business Transactions in United States Courts by H.H. KOH, Professor at Yale University, New Haven; - Citoyenneté de l'Union européenne, nationalité et condition des étrangers, par E. PÉREZ VERA, professeur à l'Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia, Madrid.
